"THE YELLOW AND THE BLACK"
Although Yale has always favored
The violet's dark blue
And the gentle sons of Harvard
To the crimson rose are true,
We will own the lillies slender
Nor honor shall they lack,
While the tiger stands defender
Of the Yellow and the Black.

Foreword

The pictures in this yearbook are a record of the year.

They serve as reminiscence of youthful days of cheer.

Of football games and rallies; of dances, clubs and fun.

Of grades and of report cards, of honors which were won.

The classes now are over, the merry times are gone.

The grades are made, the games are played, but memories live on.

A picture can interpret what words can never say.

The melancholy longing for events of yesterday.

We hope that as the years go by, this book
will be the key,

To memories of all the things which sadly ceased to be.

Our Trojan tells the story of the happy years gone by.

So turn the pages to see the years we spent at East Troy High.

Dedication

The students in this yearbook are the best that can be found.

Their loyalty and spirit have made them most renowned.

These students one and all, have hopefully aspired,

To make their Alma Mater a school to be admired.

And so we give these students our praise and just to you --- "students of ETHS,"

We dedicate this Trojan from the class of '62.

Congratulations, Seniors

It is with a great deal of pride and satisfaction that I take this opportunity at a busy time of the year to personally offer my sincere best wishes to each and every graduating senior. It has been very gratifying to me to watch the progress of each of you in your four years of high school. The true test of how well you have achieved your goals lies ahead of you.

Many of you will go on to fame in your various colleges; all of you will eventually become worthy citizens of the communities in which you finally decide to reside, but remember always the faculty of the East Troy High School are proud of your accomplishments and wish you the best in whatever endeavor you undertake.

Office Workers

MRS. HELMSTETTER

Bookkeeping, answering phone calls, taking roll, general secretary, are only a few of the jobs of the office secretaries. The students appreciate the work and patience of the office staff.

MRS. MARPLE

Board of Education

LEFT TO RIGHT L. J. Rogers, R. W. P. Ham, Rex Whitmore, J. J. Harce, Marion Kalvestrand

The Board's Voice is the People's Choice.
These men are elected in our district
and are the guardians of our schools.

Bus Drivers

Each morning and evening the buses line up in front of school to load and unload the students of ETH. The bus drivers bring rural students to school and take students to their out of town games. The students recognize and appreciate the responsibility of the bus drivers.

Cafeteria Ladies

Cooking each day for the students at ETH is the job of the cafeteria ladies. We wish to thank them for the time and effort needed to put forth the good meals.

LEFT TO RIGHT: Mrs. Hell, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Steltzner, Mrs. Clancy, Mrs. Byrnes, Dietician.

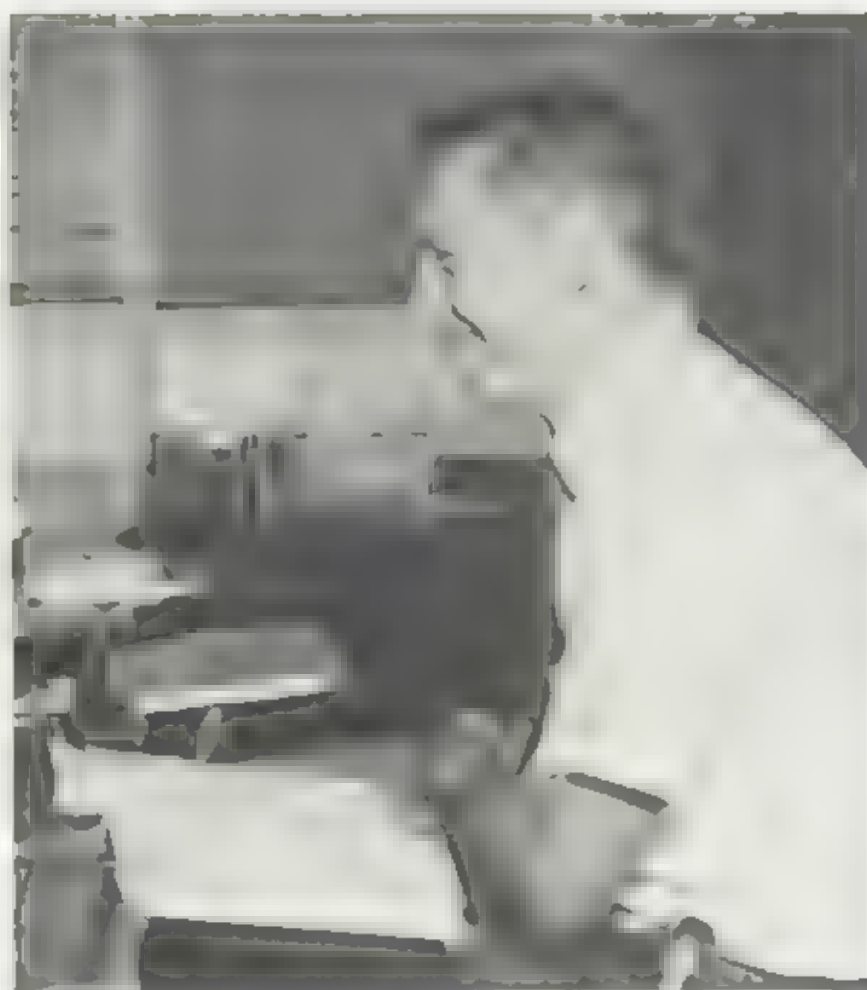

Custodians

Mr. Peck and Mr. Scheibe

Through the hard work of our janitors, our building and grounds are in excellent condition and make us proud of our school.

A Tribute To Miss Schwartz

To you, Miss Schwartz, the students of E.T.H.S. wish to extend a heartfelt thank you for the many wonderful years of service, patience, and helpfulness, which you have given us.

Your wise judgement and advice have been valued and welcomed by all. We cannot requite this kindness, but we can thank you for over 50 years of teaching and devotion to each student who has entered the portals of your classroom.

Dear Vic:

Class Prophecy

How are you coming on our project? I've located many more since I last wrote.

The other day I ran right into Pam Wise. She is a big promoter for Palmolive Soap Facial. We had dinner at Jack Gillihan's Nite Club where Helene Peck, Pat Walwrath and Mary Littlejohn work as waitresses. Karen Moeller is the singing sensation and Brian Kelly's Dance Combo plays there quite often. Brian tells us that Bill Rossmiller is a professor at Yale. Jack told us that Chester Sokolowski, Jim Keats and Don MacKenzie all have large farms near East Troy. He also told us that Chuck Theesfeld is happily married and has seven children. Helene told us that Harvey Peck and Jack Dunham are helping on the construction of a new addition to East Troy High School where Diane Pellowski, Doris Merry, and Suzette Wilcott are teaching.

Pam has recently taken a world wide trip and has come in contact with quite a few more former classmates. She tells me that Ron Siemers and Ernie Stallman are hunting Elk in northern Siberia. Darrell Healey has won the title of "Eifel Tower Sitter" in Paris. Roger Crain and Peter Fons are judging beauty contests in Africa. They told Pam that Richard Hauser is running the films at MGM for Cathie Hardaker's latest movie. David Titus was engineer on Pam's train in the states. He told her that Richard Jablonski and Ken McFarlane are flying through the wild blue.

I had my hair done yesterday by my beauticians Cathy D'Amico and Cheryl Bolster. They told me that Judy Gregg is a dance instructor at Arthur Murray Studios.

Hoping to hear from you soon.

Dyan Wiedenheft

P.S. Come up for the week-end and bring the kids'

Dear Dyan:

I received a letter from Marge Walbrant yesterday. She's giving trampoline demonstrations on the streets of Madrid. She also said that Peggy Greinert and Larry Koeppen are happily married. Larry said that Bill Katke won an award for his latest chemical discovery...flubber.

Ron Piaczek runs a big factory here in town where Jane Walters, Lynda Anderson, and Pat Anderson are secretaries. Jane told me that Nancy Spaight is the Spanish interpreter in the U.N. Building. In the lobby of Ron's office is an oil painting done by Betsy McCarthy with which she won "Painting of the Year" award. Ron told me that Tom Wilcox has just published his latest cartoon book "Wilcox Weirdos."

Karen Luckman just finished filming a movie in Mexico with her co-star Bob Szmanda. Their producer, Phil Adsit is making a mint of money. Bob tells me that Ken Box shot off his toe during combat training and was rushed to the hospital by Jay Anderson. While there, his nurses were Marilyn Anderson, Nancy Kretschmer, and Shirley Holtzheimer. Marilyn told me that she and her husband had recently stayed at Helmstetter's Hotel managed by Bill. He has a very capable staff under him including Karin and Althea Koegel. David Lawlor and Claire Roeker also work there as bell hops.

I saw congressman Roger Williams last week. He was talking with Dave Schmidt in the barber shop while Jesse Meier was giving him a hair cut.

I also found out that Earl Kulzick is very successful in the business field. He has many secretaries under him including Paulette Stollenwerk and Mary MacKenzie. Mary Kay told me that Paul Ebert won a photography contest with a picture of Olympic Champion Jay Lentzner in action.

Dave Fox and Allen Knepel are race car drivers and they told me that Ken Bork and Terry Hempel each own and operate tracks.

Well Dyan, I think this makes our project complete. just imagine. ten years ago we were in high school.

We'll be seeing you this week-end.

Vicky Krubert

Class Will

We the class of 1962 being of sound mind and body - -(we hope) --do hereby bequeath the following.

To the faculty we bequeath our timid ways that have endeared us to them during our stay here. To the ambitious juniors we leave the 11¢ profit we made on our Prom last year. To the sophomores we leave all our happy memories of those important occasions still awaiting them. To the freshmen we leave all our precious doo-deds such as; slightly used shotputs, cardboard fish, and hamburgers with the works.

In addition to the above generous gifts, Phil Adsit - leaves his witty remarks to Lynn Scheel. Jay Anderson - leaves for greater things. Lynda Anderson - leaves with the same class ring she came with. Marilyn Anderson - leaves for nursing school. Pat Anderson - leaves her typing ability to Mr. Hanneman. Cheryl Bolster leaves her gay manner to anyone who likes to have fun. Ken Bork - leaves with a sigh of relief. Ken Bork leaves his Nash in the trash. Roger Crain - leaves junior girls, reluctantly. Cathy D'Amico - leaves her hair color to Kay Kirkland. Jack Danham - just leaves. Paul Ebert - leaves some used flashbulbs to Randy Schmidt. Peter Fons - leaves for Mikwonago. The pages in this yearbook were produced by toil and sweat--they're full of all the good times we never will forget-----

Our yearbook's "inside" story we'll now like to relate ---- The tale of mislaid copy; the prints that came too late, --Of negatives we've ruined; of shots we didn't get--Of the joyous celebration when the last deadline was met-----

And now we'd like to finish a certain task we've missed----Thanking those without whose help our yearbook could not exist.

We especially thank Mrs. Nowatske for her patience and advice--and Mr. Fossum for his service so precise-- We also thank the teachers for their kind co-operation.--The students truly merit our deep appreciation.

Of one thing we are certain, and we know you'll all agree, our TROJAN is more than just a book, it is

Ken
 I thought I write a few words in your book after I can say is (now that it's all over, all I can say is (now that you put up with me. Your minute + second that I shall ever have. I will have the best buddies quite a few laughs this year (maybe some to many) and hope the rest of the year (maybe some to many) and through with your task that you may encounter. I hope succeed in every way that you may encounter. I hope not take up anymore room for me or anywhere in these words.
 = your the greatest friend I shall ever have. I hope will ever know. Ken and your person my with that cute looking blond you have together along behind you."
